April Newsletter

April is a great time to refresh your skills and reconnect with resources that support your work.
This month, we're featuring new learning opportunities, helpful tools, and ways to stay engaged with your network.

Browse through the highlights below and find something new to explore.

Expand Your Knowledge

Register Now

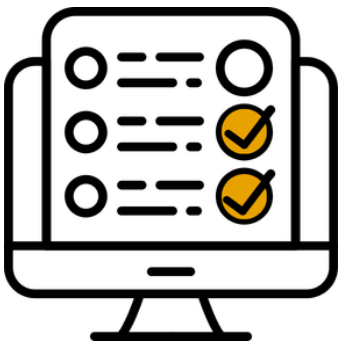

You asked...We listened. Motivational Interviewing continues to be one of the most requested topics, and we're excited to offer a deeper dive.

Join us this June for Motivational Interviewing 201, led by returning expert Megan Bailey. This session will build on foundational skills and provide advanced strategies you can use in your work.

Explore Resources Now

While you wait for the webinar, here are several tools and guides to strengthen your approach:

- Motivational Interviewing 101
- Motivational Interviewing Tips
- Real-Time Tools for Engaging with Distressed Clients
- Navigating Difficult Conversations with Clients

- Introduction to Strength-Based Services
- Listening to Change

New Micro Lessons!

Short on time but still want to grow your skills? Our latest Micro-Lessons are designed to deliver practical guidance you can apply right away.

- How-to Find an I-94 Online
- Working with Interpreters

Each lesson takes just a few minutes, making it easy to learn something new, even on a busy day. More lessons will continue to be released throughout 2026.

Watch Now

Provider Directory

If you haven't already joined the Provider Directory, now is the time. Creating your profile is free and helps improve visibility, referrals, and collaboration across agencies statewide.
Keep your information up to date and make it easier for partners to connect with you.

Join the Directory

support guide

E: CAnewcomer@solveraconsult.com
W: www.supportguide.org

View

Want to change how you receive these emails? You can update your preferences or unsubscribe.